“Memorable Moments” Campaign Unveiled at Top Newport Hotel

Submit Your Photos To Win a Weekend at The Chanler at Cliff Walk

January 04, 2011 (Newport, Rhode Island) – The Chanler at Cliff Walk, recently named #1 Small Hotel in the U.S. by Conde Nast Traveler, is asking people to submit a photo they have of themselves, friends, or a scenic shot that display aspects of The Chanler to help document its rich history.

Originally built in 1870 by Congressman John Winthrop Chanler as his family’s summer home, the property underwent many incarnations, including a girls school, an apartment for Naval officers and a historic museum. In the mid 1940s The Chanler first became a hotel, dubbed “Cliff Walk Manor” and in 2003 the historic landmark opened at The Chanler at Cliff Walk. To document the many transformations, the property would like to see past guests’ “Memorable Moments” pictures.

Guests are welcome to submit their photos for one of or all three categories; including, Historic (before 1950), Vintage (1950-2000) and Today (2000 – present). Submission of photos will last all year and at the end of 2011, General Manager, Christine Sullivan will pick an image from each category that best represents The Chanler and the time period. To submit your photo, simply upload your image to “The Wall” of the hotel’s facebook page – www.facebook.com/TheChanler or send them directly to The Chanler at memorablemoments@thechanler.com or at 117 Memorial Boulevard, Newport, RI 02840.

The three winners from the different categories will win a “Weekend Away” at The Chanler. The prize will include two nights accommodations (based on a couple), breakfast each morning and a dinner at their award-winning restaurant, Spiced Pear. Winners are eligible to use their “Weekend Away” prize throughout the entire year of 2012 based on availability and blackout dates.

The Chanler recently became part of Preferred Boutique™ and Historic Hotels of America® brands. Being a part of Historic Hotels of America is an honor, as The Chanler has an extensive history dating back to the Civil War-era. This year, The Chanler wants to have their rich history come to life by involving past guests, past experiences and past photographs to take part in the “historic search.”

“The Chanler has such an extensive history and it has been a journey for our team to discover the many transformations from its past,” said Christine Sullivan, General Manager of The Chanler. “It is our hope that through the ‘Memorable Moments’ campaign we will further understand this properties rich history.”
