Newport, RI Mansion Hotel Announces Preferred Hotel Group Membership

The Chanler Becomes a Member of Preferred Boutique and Historic Hotels of America

September 5, 2010 (Newport, Rhode Island) – The Chanler at Cliff Walk, the 20-room mansion hotel located along the edge of the Atlantic Ocean in Newport, RI, announces its distinction as the latest addition to the elite hotels in the Preferred Boutique and Historic Hotels of America collection. The accomplishment comes on the heels of being named the #4 Small Hotel in the U.S. by Conde Nast Traveler, naming a new top-tier General Manager and Executive Chef to the team, and helping to raise thousands of dollars for The National Wildlife Federation to help aid the Gulf clean-up.

Preferred Boutique, part of the Preferred Hotel Group brand, began in 2005 and has grown to include 114 properties spanning the globe. The collection of hotels and resorts encompasses sophisticated style, superb service, attention to unique detail, and above all else an exceptional level of quality. Guests who visit a Preferred Boutique property can expect the ultimate travel experience.

“We are proud to be a member of such a world-class hotel collection,” says Christine Sullivan, General Manager of The Chanler. “To be a member of both Preferred Boutique and Historic Hotels of America is an honor for our entire team that has worked hard to make this happen.”

The Chanler, which opened in 2003, is the only hotel located on Newport’s famous Cliff Walk. The hotel is known for its location, sophistication, awe-inspiring rooms, and the seaside gourmet dining at the Spiced Pear Restaurant. The award-winning restaurant serves Contemporary American Cuisine and prides itself on using locally grown New England ingredients.
